

Airese AH

Humidity controlled acoustic air inlet unit.

The Airese AH, an acoustic air inlet unit which allows efficient background ventilation automatically and discreetly, without the need for occupant involvement.

Ideally suited to inner city dwellings in busy areas, the Airese AH helps to reduce the disturbance from neighboring roads or railways etc.

Features

- Self adjusting according to humidity
- Reduces noise transfer
- Variable flow rate between 6-45 m³/hr
- Airflow regulated according to humidity within a pressure range of 20 Pa
- Can be fitted on a vertical wall or any planed surface
- Acoustic nature prevents external noise entering the building
- 3 year warranty

Model: Airese AH

Part No: 9041306

The Airese AH

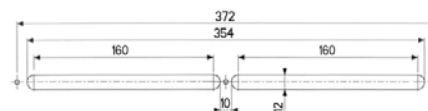

Airese AH, a unit designed as a humidity controlled air inlet which reduces external noise and distraction without inhibiting ventilation performance.

An air intake unit combining self regulating and silent operation...

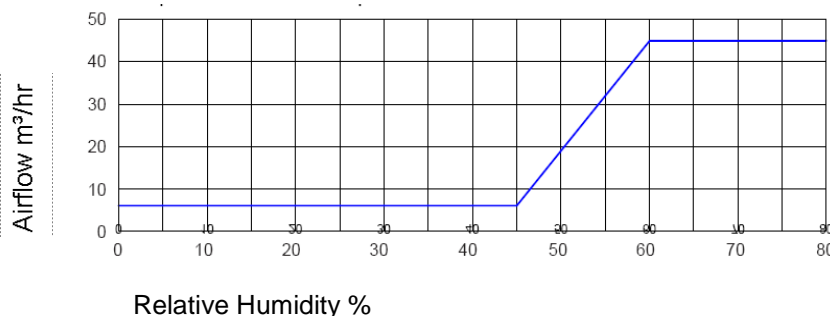

Application

For use in residential applications. Suitable for wall or window fixing.

Placement of screws for installation.

-Dimensions:
425x 45x 40 mm.
- Airflow: 6/45 m³/h

For more information please visit airflow.com or email us at info@airflow.com or call 01494 560800